THE GOLDEN SIDE.

There is many a rest in the road of life,
If we would only stop to take it;
And many a tone from the better land,
If the querulous heart would make it!
To the sunny soul that is full of hope,
And whose beautiful trust ne'er faileth,
The grass is green and the flowers are bright,
Though the water storm prevaileth.

Better to hope, though the clouds hang low,
And to keep the eyes still lifted;
For the sweet blue sky will soon peep through,
When the ominous clouds are rifted!
There was never a night without a day,
Or an evening without a morning;
And the darkest hour, as the proverb goes,
Is the hour before the dawning.

There is many a gem in the path of life,
Which we pass in our idle pleasure,
That is richer far than the jeweled crown,
Or the miser's hoarded treasure;
It may be the love of a little child,
Or a mother's prayers to heaven,
Or only a beggar's grateful thanks,
For a cup of water given.

Better to weave in the web or life
A bright and golden filling,
And to do God's will with a ready heart,
And hands that are ready and willing,
Than to snap the delicate, minute threads
Of our curious lives asunder,
And then blame Heaven for the tangled ends,
And sit and grieve and wonder.

LEONORA BAGWN.

A STORY OF A HEROIC GIRL.

On the border of Green Lake, in Minnesota, there lived a sturdy white haired frontiersman named Walter Brown. He was one of those adventurous spirits ever to be found in the van of advancing civilization, always courting the free, wild air of the prairie, and rejoicing in the profound depths of uninhabited forests.

But the country became more and more thickly settled, and Walter Brown became uneasy. His wife had borne him a daughter, the third or fourth year of their residence at the headquarters of the St. Croix, whom he called Leonora. She was a good girl, and the idol of her father. He purchased a rifle for her when she was but twelve years old, and took the utmost pains in teaching her the use of it. She was brave and steady of nerve, and soon acquired wonderful skill as a shot, and the number of prairie-chickens, partridges, wild-water-fowls, and other small game she managed to shoot each day, was really large. Occasionally she would shoot a deer, and one eventful morning, by a lucky shot through the eye into the brain, she killed a bear.

When she came home with the news, her father could scarcely credit her. But knowing her perfectly truthful nature, he danced about the room for joy, and seizing the sturdy little maid, he mounted her upon his shoulders and insisted upon carrying her all the way to the spot where the dead bruin lay.

Thicker and thicker flowed the tide of emigration into Minnesota and Wisconsin, following the navigable rivers as a matter of course, and more and more uneasy and "crowded" felt Walter Brown. At length his wife died. Leonora was then sixteen, and engaged to be married to a handsome young trapper by the name of Watson, who had joined her father in business.

The death of the mother had made it necessary to postpone the wedding, and in the interim old Walter decided to move into northwest Minnesota. Neighbors were getting too near, and hunting and trapping were bad. As the young man had proved up and pre-empted a quarter section of land near Taylor's Falls, he did not wish to either abandon or sell it just then, and persuading Leonora to agree to write to him, he bade her an effectionate good by.

Brown lived in Minnesota for three or four years in peace and quiet, finding good trapping and hunting grounds, when all at once young Watson arrived, and renewed the proposal of marriage with Leonora.—The old man had determined to move no more, and had accordingly located and pre empted several thousand acres of land about him, and learning from Watson that he had money enough to do likewise, proposed that he should go down to St. Paul and buy land warrants with his money, and take up all the land he could "swing." He might then marry Leonora, and the two would go to work, and after building plenty of stabling, &c., would get a good stock of cattle and s

Advertisers and others interested will bear in mind that the regular circulation of the "STAR AND SENTINEL" is much larger than that of any other paper published in the County, being read weekly by not less than 11,000 persons.

THE final rail to unite the Union Pacific and the Central Pacific Railroads, will be laid to-day or to-morrow, thus giving a complete railroad communication across the continent from the Atlantic to the Pacific. The point of junction will be at or near Promontory Point, in Utah Territory.

THE Tenth Provincial Council of Baltimore of the Roman Catholic Church assembled at the Cathedral in that city on Sunday, and is still in session. The Council is composed of fourteen Bishops from Pennsylvania, Delaware, and the seaboard Southern States, with the most Rev. Archbishop Spalding presiding. The opening services on Sunday were very imposing.

GEN. LEE, the commander of the Rebel armies, last week visited Baltimore with a Committee of Virginians to solicit material aid for the construction of several lines of railroad. The anxiety of the Baltimore Rebels to do honor to their chieftain converted the occasion into a personal ovation, and the result is that while the followers of the "lost cause" in that essentially Rebel city have been gratified, the Virginians will have to build their own railroads.

THE Internal Revenue Bureau has determined that hereafter no cases shall be settled, dismissed or compromised, except by the decision of the Solicitor, and no Assessor, Collector or District Attorney will be permitted to negotiate on the subject. Compromises will be made only where the evidence shows an absence of intent to defraud, and in all other cases the law will be rigorously enforced. No subordinate of the Bureau will be allowed to confer with the claimants concerning their cases.

THE General Assemblies of the Presbyterian Church, both Old and New Schools, will meet in New York on the 17th of May. The question of the reunion of the two schools upon a common platform will be one of the most important topics before both Assemblies. Last year a basis of union was sent down to the Presbyteries of both branches, and the approaching sessions of the General Assemblies will probably definitely settle the question one way or the other.

SENATOR SPRAGUE, of Rhode Island, who has been recently making himself notorious by eccentric and offensive speeches in the Senate, last week got into difficulty with Senator ABBOTT, of North Carolina, who understood one of SPRAGUE'S offensive remarks to refer to himself, and gave notice of his purpose to obtain "satisfaction." For several days a collison was anticipated, but ABBOTT was finally induced to address a note to SPRAGUE inquiring whether the latter intended his offensive remark for him, whereupon SPRAGUE said "not at all," and the parties made up—both having acted very silly.

THE examiners appointed by the Court of Common Pleas of Philadelphia, to take testimony in the contested election cases of that city, have nearly completed their arduous labors, and the Germantown Telegraph says the work has progressed so far, that twenty-one hundred fraudulent votes have been proven, enough even to throw out Mayor Fox and install Tyndale. This carries all the other offices with it. All this, too, without throwing out any precincts; but it is pretty certain that particular precincts, in which the election was a farce—not the least pretence of a compliance with the law being made by the election officers—will be thrown out.

IT is reported from Washington that Secretary FISH will soon retire from the State Department. It is said he has remained only in deference to the personal request of the President.—Congress having adjourned, and most of the foreign appointments having been made, he now desires to return to private life.

It is further stated that Secretary BORIE has intimated to the President that he will soon retire from the Cabinet on account of ill health.

It is also rumored that Gen. SICKLES will be tendered the Mission to Spain, to succeed John P. Hale. The President had nominated Mr. Sanford for the position, but the Senate having failed to approve the nomination, a new appointment will be necessary.

WE observe that GEORGE EYSTER, Esq., recently appointed Treasurer of the Mint and Assistant Treasurer of the United States at Philadelphia, has entered upon the duties of his office.—Mr. Eyster is well known to our citizens as a prominent member of the Chambersburg Bar, as the upright, energetic, faithful and honest Provost Marshal of this District during the War, and as a gentleman of the most exalted worth. His business qualities are of the first order, and his integrity absolutely unquestioned. He could not be more agreeably placed than in the responsible office confided to his care; and the government will not have, in any of its Departments, a more competent and conscientious officer. When the citizens of Philadelphia know him as well as we do, they will appreciate him as highly.

MONDAY last was observed throughout the United States as the semi-centenial anniversary of the introduction of the Order into the United States.—The first Lodge of Odd Fellows was established in Baltimore, on the 26th of April, 1819, by Thomas Wildey, an Englishman who had become familiar with the system in England. During the fifty years which have since intervened it has grown with remarkable rapidity, and now ramifies every State and Territory of the Republic. In 1860, the total revenue for thirty years reached the large sum of $8,478,528, the major portion of which had been distributed among those of the membership who were in needy circumstances, or to the families of deceased brethren. While the day was observed with appropriate ceremonies in all the large cities, the demonstration in Philadelphia was particularly imposing, the ceremonies there taking place under the immediate auspices of the Grand Lodge of the United States. The city was crowded with visiting members of the Order, and the Philadelphia papers give glowing accounts of the Procession, Banquet and Speeches.

DANIEL HAGERTY has been appointed Postmaster at Hanover.

Gov. HOFFMAN, of New York, and other prominent leaders of the Democratic party, have united in a Circular, which is extensively published in the Democratic papers, urging the circulation of "Democratic newspapers" as the most potent agency in securing the triumph of the party in future political struggles. These gentlemen have a full appreciation of the power of the Press and the importance of extending the circulation of the local papers.—The annexed extract we commend to the attention of our Republican friends:

"A free press is the most effective weapon for combating popular error, and achieving the political revolution which it was never more clear than now is indispensable to the country's prosperity, liberties, union and peace. We would therefore recommend the immediate formation of newspaper clubs in your town, and that you enlist the efforts of your friends and neighbors, with your own, to place a Democratic newspaper, every week in the coming year, in the hands not only of every Democrat who can afford to pay for it, but also those who cannot, and of every 'doubtful' voter whose mind is accessible to the candid, earnest, and able presentations of the truths and principles of Democratic freedom."

It is well sometimes to learn from the enemy, and if our Republican friends would ensure the continued triumph of Republican principles and facilitate the labors of the approaching Gubernational campaign in this State, they cannot do a wiser thing than act on the suggestion of Gov. Hoffman & Co., and see to it that a Republican paper is put into the hands of every Republican and "doubtful" voter in the county.

THE Copperheads are unfortunate in their assaults on Gen. Grant. An investigation of the charge of nepotism, of which so much has been said, develops the fact that he has appointed no relative of his own to office, unless it be Silas Hudson, of Iowa, Minister to Honduras, who may possibly be a cousin, but nothing nearer. Gen. Grant's father was appointed Postmaster at Covington, Ky., by President Lincoln; and Prof. Kramer, brother-in-law to Mrs. Grant, was appointed Consul at Leipsic by President Johnson. Gen. Grant has appointed two of Mrs. Grant's relatives to office, who, with Mr. Hudson, make up the list of relatives, direct and indirect, that have been favored by him.

Again, the stories about quarrels with Gen. Sickles and Carl Shurz prove to be pure fabrications, the first knowledge either the President or these gentlemen had of the alleged difficulties being their appearance in the Copperhead newspapers.

TERRIBLE RAILWAY CATASTROPHE.

NEW YORK, April 28.—A fearful accident occurred on the Long Island Railroad to the train which left Hunter's Point at half past 10 o'clock. The train ran off the track about a mile west of Queens, the cause being a broken rail. A sudden jar was felt, followed by a crash like the sound of a cannon, and the startled conductor stopped the train as speedily as possible. The engine and baggage car were unharmed. The hind truck of the second car was off the track, but no one in it was injured, and the car itself sustained very little damage. But the third car, which was still upright and attached to the train, had suffered a most singular and fatal accident. It was thrown from the track by the broken rail to which the catastrophe is attributed, and the forward truck was in some unaccountable way broken off, and tipped up in such a manner as to lodge between the track and the floor above it. Instead of being stopped by this obstacle, the car rushed on, and the iron wheels tore through the floor, breaking it to splinters and ripping the seats from their fastenings, and finally knocking off the hind truck, dropping the car on the track. If the coupling had only broken at this instant the accident would not have been so terrible, but the link held with fatal tenacity, and for at least 50 yards futher the bottomless cage bounded along, grinding the miserable passengers beneath its cruel edges and strewing the horrible mass of blood stained rubbish and writhing humanity along the track so that when it finally stopped it was entirely empty, only excepting one wretched woman who lay half under it. The horrified passengers and the people of the vicinity hastened to the relief of the sufferers, and everything was done for them that kind hearts could devise or willing fingers execute.

THE KILLED.

Four men, one woman, and an infant were killed almost instantly, viz: William C. Rushmore, president of the Atlantic Bank, Brooklyn; Dr. Orestes M. Pray, of Brooklyn; Mrs. Matilda R. Pray, of Brooklyn, mother of Dr. Pray; George Van Nostrand, brakeman; P. C. Sharahan, railroad contractor, of Newport, L. I.; Jennie Adams, 10 months old.

Besides these, a number of passengers were severely wounded, several of them fatally. The train was running at the usual speed, 20 miles an hour, when the accident occurred.

OUR RELATIONS WITH CUBA.—The position of the Secretary of State with regard to our relations to Spain on the Cuba question are now said to have been misunderstood, if not misrepresented. The Spanish Minister has been urging our Government to issue a proclamation of neutrality, as was done by Mr. Van Buren during the Canadian rebellion, and afterward by Mr. Fillmore, in 1851, in regard to Cuba. Mr. Fish has steadily resisted this demand, on the ground that the circumstances of the case are entirely different. In 1851 there was no organized rebellion or revolution in Cuba, but the effort to stir up disturbances was made by parties outside of the Island, and chiefly from this country. Now the condition is almost entirely the reverse; the Cubans have not only originated themselves an armed resistance to Spanish rule, but they have organized a working Government, and sustained themselves in the field against the power of their former governors. A proclamation of neutrality by the United States at this juncture would be construed as an act or expression against the insurgents, tantamounts to a moral intervention in favor of the Spanish Government. The Secretary has also made a demand for the release of the persons taken from the American vessel Lizzie Major, on the ground that the case is covered by the decision in the Mason-Slidell affair, and that the Spanish Government had no right to seize even its avowed enemies whilst under the protection of the United States flag. This demand, it is understood, will be complied with. A remonstrance from our Government has also caused the withdrawal of Captain General Dulce's bloodthirsty proclamation in regard to vessels captured in Spanish waters having men and munitions on board. This, Mr. Fish said was in violation of international law, and the President desires that every American citizen, at home and abroad, should be shielded from violence, and that our reinforced fleet in Cuban waters meant protection to our citizens.

BAD ADVISERS.—Several of the South ern papers have lately concluded that the Northern Democracy are bad advisers of the South. The lateness of this discovery is the only thing that detracts from its merits. When war was pending the passion was on, Southern leaders were blind to the two-faced game played by their allies in the North. Their acts could then be concealed by promises, and promises of all kinds were showered upon rebels. That all were broken may have given rise to a suspicion of unfaithfulness, but these were again lulled by promises. To the sinking hopes of the South even this unprincipled support was soothing. Desperation clutches at straws. Promise has taken the shape of intermeddling advice, every word, every letter of which has resulted in ruin and disgrace. Last year was the first that indicated a desire to shake from the industry of the South the incubus of Democracy. The people began to reason. Bigotry gave place to thought. White and black began to see that they had interests in common, and that all those interests were antagonized by that stupendous fraud known as Democracy. Its advice had been like poison, wherever inhaled. In the precise ratio that Democratic advice has been discarded, has the South grown in significance, and put on safety and prosperity. Witness Tennessee, North Carolina, South Carolina, Florida, and Arkansas. These States are bounding along under the new order. They are Republican, which everywhere is the synonym of order and law, of industry and thrift, of security and happiness, of education and morality. The States that have not, until lately made the discovery of Democracy inadvertence and treachery, are now repenting of their blindness. But, as they have resolved to discard the old faith, a magic change awaits them.—Phila. Press.

A TERRIBLE DEATH.—The Hartford Post relates that on Sunday night fire broke out in a house in Rainbow owned and occupied by John Darwin, who kept a liquor saloon on the ground floor. When the citizens reached the spot the house was a heap of ruins and Darwin was found lying on the ground so severely burned that he died at daybreak. It appears that after the fire broke out he first ran out of the house, but returned to save his children, although he was very much intoxicated. Upon entering the building the flames struck him upon his face, and owing to the large quantity of liquor which he had just been drinking, the inside of the mouth and stomach at once caught fire. His tongue was entirely burned up, and his sufferings therefore must have been awful. His children, three girls and two boys, were brought out of the house by neighbors. His oldest boy, eighteen years of age, was also badly burned. He too was findisposed, and there had evidently been a carousal going on, during which the fire was probably accidentally set.

Gov. Wise has, in the words of an exchange, at last surrendered to John Brown. He says: "For myself, I praise God for the war every day, notwithstanding its disaster and its loss, as a special providence, indispensable to free the good my wife's heroes from the wickedness in our midst. Adieu slavery."

OFFICE SEEKERS.—"A Woman's Letters from Washington," written over the signature of "M. C. A.," which are published in the N. Y. Independent, are among the most readable of any that have ever come under our observations. The following extract from her last contains so much good sense, and is so timely that we publish it for the benefit of our readers:

"It is almost impossible for legislation to go on, the lobbies are so thronged with office-seekers. If I were a man, and could earn an honest living with my hands, I should certainly do it, instead of coming to Washington in search of an office. I'd rather eat the bread of spontaneous toil, though earned by sweat of brow and weariness of brain, than to grind it out as a machine in the Government employ. Yet I see many faces to sympathize with in these lobbies—honest country faces, careworn, sickly ones, who really look as if they had the right to whatever they may have come to ask for. Of course, somebody has a right to the Government patronage; perhaps those who come after it have as good a right as anybody. But it strikes me very oddly when I hear members of Congress and their wives speaking loftily and contemptuously of "office seekers," as if belonging to a totally different genus from themselves. My opinion is that they are all office-seekers together; the difference being only in the fatness of the prizes which they seek after. I don't know why it is not as honorable and as modest for a man to try to get a post-office a consulate, or a clerkship, as for a man to spend half his fortune, and sell his soul perhaps in the bargain, to get to Congress. Looking down on this luxurious Senate Chamber on these black-coated, high-chokered gentlemen, spreading about so utterly at ease, it is difficult, to realize that they are not to the Senate born, that they did not glide into these cushioned chairs by the graceful groves of a natural birthday. But there is not a man here who has not worked hard, or hired other men to work hard, for th e legislative chair—how hard many would not care to tell. The heart-burnings, the jealousies, the hates, the lavished fortunes, the bartered honor which bought some of these seats, their occupants would not dare to have known. There are men sitting here for whom thousands of other men have worked as for themselves to place them were they are. Before their triumph they did not feel at all bemeaned to ask a poor man to vote for them; they deemed no man too lowly to work for them; they themselves "stumped," "canvassed," "electioneered," till they were hoarse and sick, and thought the office they wanted well worth the trouble. But, the honor once won, it is so easy to forget the tug and the turmoil that bought it; so easy to forget the poor man in the shabby coat who voted for you; so easy to snub the poor man in the ante-room who ventures to stammer: "Sir, I worked for you, and will you do what you can for me?" so grand to play the great senator, by waving your hand majestically toward a guarded door, and exclaiming in an awe-inspiring voice: "I have no time to attend to you. My duties are in the Senate Chamber!" All this is so easy, and so mean. The Senate is the nation's guard of honor. If I were a man, I would not stop short of being a senator myself; but, having gained that high estate, I hope that I would have grace to remember that it was the people quite as much as myself who had made me one, and when I complained to my wife that I was "almost bored to death by office-seekers," I hope she would reply, in a wife's most aggravating tones: "My dear, when you wanted an office, remember how dreadfully you bored other people." I have seen some fearful taking on of airs of late on the feminine side of official life by women in themselves ordinary to the verge of stupidity, whom the people have elevated as so many dead weights appended to their husband's honors. It would be amusing to see them avert their eyes and sniff their noses at "office-seekers" and at "common people," if their new places did not give them the power to wound the feelings of strangers."

FOREIGN.—According to a despatch from London the Government of England is to make an entire change of front on the Cuban question by recognizing the independence of the island, according belligerent rights to the insurgents and tendering them material assistance. All this is to be done to prevent the annexation of Cuba by the United States and give a color of consistency to the course of the English Government in regard to the Southern Confederacy. In the Spanish Constituent Cortes, on Saturday, Olozaga announced that France would respect the future National Government of Spain, whatever form it might assume. A Republican member introduced a resolution forever debarring the Bourbons from the throne of Spain; to which an amendment was adopted making the resolution apply only to the Ex-Queen Isabella and her children. The Italian Court of Appeals has decreed the abolition of the death penalty in that country. King William, of Prussia, has said to a deputation of persons who had volunteered to take care of the wounded in case of war, that the object of their association was apparently distant. He congratulated them upon their undertaking, and hoped for favorable results from it. At the opening of the Hungarian Diet, the Emperor Francis Joseph made a peaceful address, saying that the relations between Austria and the other powers of the world offered a peaceful prospect. The Dagbladet, a leading journal of Copenhagen, in speaking of the purchase of the Danish West India Islands by the United States—as arranged by Secretary Seward—says that the question of the acquisition of the Antilles by the United States ripens, and accuses America of want of respect for Denmark. It also says that if the measure of the purchase of St. Thomas by the United States fails, Count Raasloff, the Prime Minister, will resign.

WHO KILLED YANCEY?—It will be recollected that William L. Yancey, of South Carolina, one of the original fire-eaters who largely contributed to fire up the Southern heart and precipitate the Rebellion, was killed during one of the sessions of the Rebel Congress, but his death has been involved in mystery. A correspondent in Harrisonburg, Va., thus refers to the matter:—"A few days ago I overheard a conversation in relation to the death of Wm. L. Yancey, of South Carolina, which goes to prove an assertion that I have previously heard, namely, that he was killed by Hill, of Georgia. One of the speakers said that he was intimately acquainted with a man by the name of Shanks, a stenographer who reported the proceedings of the Rebel Congress. On one occasion Shanks came to his house in a state of intoxication, and said that he had the notes of the proceedings of the Rebel Congress, and meant shortly to publish them in a book, when some startling developments would be made. On being asked about the death of Yancey, he declined to answer on the ground that it would injure the sale of his book, but, he said, 'when the proceedings of the secret session are published, you will know all about it, and I will show they that he did not die a natural death.' The reporter died a few weeks later at delorium tremens, and the book was never published. Another gentleman now said that he knew Yancey was killed by Hill, having heard a quarrel between a member of Congress who was present, and who said that Hill could relate all about it. The latter objected to having the matter published, as it would be the proposition made by Mr. Yancey at the Peace Conference in Hampton Roads. This could only be done by a physical display, having reference to the Speaker's chair. The gentleman who was present at the quarrel, thereupon left the room. The story related that Hill, in a fit of passion, struck Yancey with a bowie knife, and killed him instantly. Hill was arrested, but released on bail. He never appeared to stand his trial, and the matter was hushed up."

A COLORED story is told of a German shoemaker who, having made a pair of boots for a gentleman of those fraternal interests, had considerable doubt made the following reply to him when he called for the article: "De goots is very goot for you, for dey look like de goots you wear."

FOREIGN.—Cardinal Cullen has issued a circular to the clergy of Ireland, in which he urges the duty of abstaining from all participation in the Fenian movement. The Pope has addressed a letter to the Irish Bishops, in which he expresses his sympathy with the Irish people, and his hope that they will remain faithful to the Church. The Irish Bishops have issued a pastoral letter, in which they declare that they will not allow the Fenian movement to be made a political question, and that they will not permit the Irish people to be led into any revolutionary movement.

NEWS OF NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

CARROLL.—At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Carroll County Agricultural Society, last week, it was resolved to hold their first Fair, on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, the 28th, 29th, and 30th of September and the 1st of October.—A horse was stolen on Saturday night from the stable of Dr. R. Mills, Westminster.—The Grand Division of the Sons of Temperance from the State of Maryland met in Westminster yesterday.—Three new Churches are being built in Westminster, Methodist Protestant, Methodist Episcopal, and German Reformed.

CUMBERLAND.—The workmen on the South Mountain Railroad commenced laying rails on the 22nd inst., and are now pushing the work forward vigorously. The road bed is graded almost the entire length of the line, and it is expected that the cars will be running to Mt. Holly at least by the 4th of July.—Henry Ruby, formerly of Chambersburg, has been elected President of the Farmers' and Mechanics' Bank of Shippensburg.—James Smith has been appointed Postmaster at New Cumberland.—A valuable cow belonging to Rev. J. A. Ross, of New Cumberland, was killed by the cars last week.

FRANKLIN.—At the recent Court in Chambersburg Dr. John J. Oelig was tried on the charge of producing Abortion on information of Jane Welsh. The Jury failed to agree, and the defendant was held in $2,000 for his appearance at August term.—John M. McDowell was admitted to practice law in the Courts of Franklin county.—Wm. McClellan, a well known and highly respectable citizen of Upper Strasburg, died suddenly from apoplexy, on Wednesday evening last.—J. Allison Eyster, of Chambersburg, has purchased a fine water right near Charlestown, Va., where he intends erecting a large paper mill.—Samuel Seylar, tried at Chambersburg on the charge of robbing Fallon's store in Mercersburg last fall has been acquitted.—Dr. James W. Robinson, of Fulton county, was tried on the same charge, found guilty, and sentenced to three years in the Eastern Penitentiary.—Cambridge Norris (colored) was convicted of Rape on three separate indictments and sentenced to the Penitentiary 15 years on each, making 45 years in all. This is the case of terrible outrages commited on three white girls near Chambersburg, the details of which were given a few weeks ago.

FREDERICK.—Governor Bowie has signed the death warrant for the execution of George Truman, colored, convicted of murder in the first degree at the late term of the Circuit Court for Frederick County. May 28th has been designated as the day of execution.—The friends of the Frederick and Pa. Line Railroad seem to be moving earnestly in the work. Proposals for grading 28 sections, each section over a mile, will be received at the Company's office in Frederick up to the 25th of May.—Mrs. Rebecca Lease, of Frederick, on the evening of the 20th inst., while preparing tea suddenly fell dead.—The Rev. Mr. Buhrman of Waynesboro', Pa., has received a call from the Lutheran congregation of Middletown.—Dr. Samuel McGill last week challenged Albertus Spencer, (both of Jefferson district,) to fight a duel for alleged offensive remarks. The challenge was accepted, and Buzzard's Rocks, between Jefferson and Point of Rocks, fixed as the place of meeting, with double-barrel shot guns. Spencer appeared on the ground with his seconds, but McGill failed to come to time, having been arrested and put under bonds the day before the meeting. Spencer also was subsequently arrested and put under bonds. So the duel didn't come off. As usual a lady was at the bottom of the difficulty.

WASHINGTON.—The extension of the Cumberland Valley Railroad from Hagerstown to Williamsport has been abandoned for the present.—John Newcomer, who left Washington county a few weeks ago for the West, was killed on the railroad at St. Charles, Missouri. He had stepped out of the cars, at a cut with a high stone wall at the side, when the cars backed, and Mr. N. being a large man was caught in this small space of not more than seven inches and crushed to death. He was accompanied by Messrs. Keedy, Fiery, Thomas, and other late residents of Washington county, all of whom escaped without serious injury.

YORK.—Samuel Waltemyer's barn, near Stewartsville, was destroyed by fire on the 13th inst., with contents; loss $2500 and no insurance. It was set on fire by a small child.—An attempt was made one night last week to rob the dwelling of Samuel Wagner, Manheim township, the burglar placing a ladder at a second story window. Mr. W. was roused by the noise, and the villain decamped.—On Thur-day of last week the wife of Jacob Glatfelter, Hellam township, kindled a fire in the kitchen, and left her child, six years old, on the premises, while she went one hundred yards from the house, and engaged in washing. Having been absent for some time, on her return to the kitchen, the mother found her dead child lying at the steps leading to the cellar, whither it attempted to fly for rescue. The clothing was burned from his body, and even the hair on the infant's head had disappeared.

THE INCOME TAX.—Deputy Commissioner of Internal Revenue, J. W. Douglass, recently gave the following decision concerning the deduction from income of payments by sureties:

Hitherto it has been held by this office that "losses as surety cannot be deducted from income." However correct this may have been under the law as it stood previous to the amendatory act of March 2, 1867, (and of this I express no opinion), there seems to be no reason, either in equity or in law, for refusing such a deduction under the present statute.

By section 13th of the above named act several additional deductions were allowed; among them "debts ascertained to be worthless." Payment by a surety makes his principal his debtor. Then, and ordinarily not till then, there is a right of action. Whether this debt is worthless or not, is a question to be determined in each particular case. The claim of a surety against his principal may be perfectly good; he may have full security; or the principal may simply be absent, or only temporarily embarrassed. Money paid as surety is not therefore necessarily and invariably lost; but when it is found to be a loss, it may be deducted under the head of "debts ascertained to be worthless."

THE reports from all sections of the Western States indicate the largest yield of wheat in proportion to the population for many years. All sections report the same story as to the glorious prospects. All the wheat States have not only a splendid prospect for full wheat, but the farmers are preparing for a large sowing of spring wheat. The season is late and wet, but still large breadths will be sown.

Among the clerks newly appointed in the Third Auditor's Office to succeed the number recently discharged, are two colored men—Rob't R. Douglass, son of Fred Douglass, and James R. O. Hare, formerly clerk in the North Carolina Constitutional Convention.

BOOK NOTICE.

THE AMERICAN YEAR-BOOK AND NATIONAL REGISTER FOR 1869; Edited by David N. Camp, and published by O. D. Case & Co., Hartford, is the most complete publication of this kind ever made in this country. Its contents are very varied, and embrace Astronomical, Historical, Political, Financial, Commercial, Agricultural, Educational, and Religious facts—all systematically arranged, and accurately stated. The department relating to our country is especially rich, covering over 300 pages and including full lists of Officers—Civil, Military, and Naval—Expenditures, Appropriations, Debt, Legislation on Finances, Reconstruction, Banks, &c., and the vote of each State, by Counties, at Presidential elections from 1836 to 1868, inclusive. There is, besides, a full statement of the History, Organization, and Administration of each State. The Religious statistics of the World cover 13 pages, and make a condensed exhibit of the strength and condition of each denomination.

In a work embracing such a multiplicity of details, absolute accuracy can not be expected. We notice on page 71 a mis-statement respecting the pay of the Speaker of House, which is $8.000 a year and not, as formerly, double that of a Member. The list begun on page 71, is of the third (not second) session of 40th Congress. The Georgia Senators-elect are twice incorrectly stated as Senators. The names of several Senators are inaccurately printed, on pages 72 and 262; so of the list of Members of the House on pages 74 and 263. In the lists of Government and other officers, pp. 60—69, we observe the name of Philip Francis Thomas, of Maryland, Mr. Buchanan's Secretary of the Treasury, mutilated; that of Mr. Stuart, of Virginia, Mr. Fillmore's Secretary of the Interior, also of Messrs. Speed and Stanbery of the last Administration, of Solomon Foot, formerly President pro tempore of the Senate, and of F. A. Muhlenburg, first Speaker of the House, mis spelled; also, H. C. Warmoth, Governor of Louisiana, Jacob Thompson, former Governor of Mississippi, David Tod former Governor of Ohio, Messrs. Mifflin, and Hiester, ex-Governors of Pennsylvania, and F. H. Pierpoint, ex-Governor of Virginia. On page 437, Mr. Gara's name is not correctly rendered, nor on page 438, is Judge J. I. Clarke Hare's. Henry W. Williams is represented as occupying the two positions of Associate Justice of the Supreme Court, and Associate Judge of the District Court of Allegheny county, thus ignoring John M. Kirkpatrick who is the incumbent of the latter place, under Executive appointment.

These slight blemishes cannot be said seriously to impair the value of the Year-Book, which is a marvel of industry, and a model of skill, and which we trust to see become a permanent feature in our literature.

E. McP.

THE Democratic authorities of Frederick, Md., having demolished the homestead of Barbara Fritchie, celebrated in song by the poet Whittaker for her gallant defence of the flag of her country against the attack of Stonewall Jackson's soldiers, on their entrance into that city, it is proposed that a monument be erected to her memory. We hope that the project may meet with success.

SUICIDE OF TWO BOYS.—At Vermont, Fulton county, Illinois, last Monday, a little son of J. H. Harris, aged about thirteen years, was found suspended by his neck with a strap in his father's barn, quite dead.

In the afternoon of the same day a son of Colonel Tenney was found hanging in a similar manner. No cause can be assigned for these coincident cases of self-destruction. The most intense excitement prevails.

In the distribution of Executive, Territorial and Foreign appointments as far as made, Pennsylvania gets 1 member of the Cabinet, 1 Minister, 9 Consuls, 1 Secretary of New Mexico, 2 Secretaries of Legation and 1 Minister resident—total 15. New York counts up 18.

A FEW days ago two women living in Mansfield, Webster county, Ill., were observed, in full Bloomer costume, returning from a hunting excursion, each sporting a double-barreled shot gun, carrying numerous snipe, woodcock and tomtits, the fruit of the day's campaign.

NEW COOKING STOVE.—The attention of Housekeepers is invited to the EXCELSIOR PENN COOK STOVE, which has recently been brought into the market, and bids fair to throw all other Stoves into the shade. This Stove took the first premium at the State Fair held in Harrisburg last fall. Among its peculiar merits are the large Oven and Flues, and general simplicity, not being encumbered with unnecessary appendages, which in many stoves only enhance the cost without being of practical use. For beauty of design, quality of material, and general excellence, it cannot be excelled. The price is lower than any other first-class Cook Stove in market, and yet is warranted to cook and bake equal to the best. The Excelsior Penn Cook can be seen at the Wareroom of Col. C. H. BUEHLER, on Carlisle street, Gettysburg, who is the Agent for this place. Call and see it. tf

A WORD TO THE WISE.—Persons going to Housekeeping this spring would do well to call at Col. C. H. BUEHLER'S extensive Ware-room, near the Passenger depot, on Carlisle street, who has on hand a very large assortment of Stoves of the best manufacture, Cooking, Parlor, Office, and Chamber Stoves, for wood or Coal; also Hollow Ware, Tin Ware, Japan Ware, Britannia Ware, Bird Cages, and a general assortment of Kitchen utensils, necessary in house keeping, and at very low prices

THE PLACE TO GO.—Do you want a good Smoke—either a prime Segar or the best brand of Smoking Tobacco—you will find it at BIERBOWER'S establishment in the North east Corner of the Diamond, who makes it a speciality to turn out the very best article. Also, Chewing Tobacco of all kinds—Meerschaum Pipes, and all the articles desired by persons addicted to the use of the weed. He manufactures Segars largely, and is prepared to fill all orders promptly, and at lowest rates, WHOLESALE AND RETAIL. Address W. Bierbower, Gettysburg, Pa. tf

C! C! C!—NORRIS is just from the city with the largest and cheapest stock of goods in the county. All kinds of Men's and Boy's wear; Straw Hats, Leghorn Hats, Panama Hats, and Light Fur and Wool Hats in endless variety and cheap. Also Summer Clothing of all kinds and cut in the Latest Style. Young Gents wanting a Fashionable Suit made in the latest style and good material, can save 25 per cent by getting it at Norris' store a-middle old corner. tf

LUMBER.—The attention of Carpenters and Builders is invited to the extensive assortment of Lumber of all kinds to be found at the Lumber Yard of Col. C. H. Buehler, on Carlisle street, opposite the Passenger Depot. River and Mountain Pine, Hemlock, Laths, Siding, Joice, Scantling, Shingles, Pickets, Flooring Posts, &c., furnished in any quantity and as low as can be had elsewhere. tf

The Star and Sentinel.

Gettysburg, Friday, April 23, 1869.

RAILROAD ELECTION.—The election for President and Directors of the Littlestown Railroad Company will be held on Monday, the 3d of May next.

ARM BROKEN.—A boy of JOSIAH MILLER, of New Oxford, about 12 years of age, one day last week fell from a wagon and broke his left arm.

GEORGE BIDDER, aged 29 years, formerly of East Berlin, died suddenly at Harrisburg on Friday last. His remains were taken to East Berlin, the home of his parents.

GIVEN OUT.—On Saturday the Gettysburg Water Company gave out the contract to Henry Barbeham, at $1.50 per rod for the extension of their pipes on York street, and $1.75 on Carlisle street.

PUBLIC SALES.—FRANK D. DUFFHORN advertises a sale of Household and Kitchen Furniture on Saturday, May 8th, and Mrs. H. M. DIEHL on the 15th—both offering good Furniture and nearly new. See Advertisements.

Among the Commissioners to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, appointed by the Central Presbytery of Philadelphia, we notice the name of JACOB A. GARDNER, formerly of this county.

The Hanover Citizen announces that a Concert will be given on Tuesday evening, May 11th, in that place, for the benefit of the Sunday School of the New Lutheran Church of Hanover, by the Choir of the College church of Gettysburg.

FIRE IN THE MOUNTAIN.—During the past week a fire has been raging in the mountains north-west of this place, apparently in Buchanan Valley, covering some miles in extent. The fire has been distinctly visible from this place at night. A good deal of timber must have been destroyed.

LOCK-UP.—The Borough of Littlestown has provided a "Lock-up" for drunken and disorderly persons, and on Thursday evening of last week it received its first lodgers—a party of drunken vagrants, two men and a woman—who were locked up over night and next morning sent adrift.

REJECTED.—The United States Senate rejected the nomination of Isaac G. Tyson to the Winnebago Indian Agency. Mr. T. had the misfortune to be nominated to an Agency, the present incumbent of which is a personal friend of Senators Pomeroy of Kansas and Harlan of Iowa, and had to go under. Another of the nominees failed for a similar reason.

ELECTION.—The election for five Managers of the Gettysburg Water Company will be held at the house of George W. McClellan, in Getty-burg, on the 15th of May, between 2 and 4 o'clock, P. M. The Company is in good condition and prudently managed. The capital stock has been increased to extend the pipes to meet the demand for water.

SUNDAY SCHOOL EXHIBITION.—The Methodist Episcopal Sunday School will give an exhibition in Agricultural Hall on Friday evening next, May 7, consisting of Speeches, Dialogues, Tableaux, Singing, &c. From what we have heard of the programme, the exercises will be unusually interesting. One of the original pieces will be a representation of the Battle of Gettysburg, the advance of the Rebels, the fight, and retreat of the enemy. Admission 25 cents; children 15 cents. The proceeds will be for the benefit of the school. Let there be a full house.

NEW TIME TABLE.—By reference to the Time Table of the Gettysburg Railroad, it will be seen that under the new schedule which went into effect on Monday last, close connections will be made both morning and noon with trains on the Northern Central going North and South. This will give two trains to Baltimore, the first reaching that city at 12. 39 P. M., and the second at 5 P. M. Passengers will reach Philadelphia at 4 P. M., and New York at 7 P. M., by the morning train; and Philadelphia at 9 P. M., and New York at 12 P. M., by the afternoon train. This schedule will facilitate passenger travel, and prove advantageous to the road.

CANDIDATES.—The "patriots" in the Democratic ranks, anxious to serve the public in consideration of the perquisites incident to the County offices, are already marshalling for the contest, in anticipation of the meeting of their County Convention. The last Compiler has announcements of the following candidates:

Sheriff.—D. H. Rieman, Liberty township; Joseph Spangler, Mountpleasant; Reuben Golden, Highland; Jacob Klunk, Germany.

Clerk of the Courts.—Daniel A. Conover, Mountjoy; Jeremiah Slaybaugh, Huntington; Daniel Delap, Tyrone.

Register and Recorder.—Samuel A. Swope, Franklin; A. W. Flemming, Gettysburg.

INSTALLATION.—The Rev. W. S. VANCLEVE was installed on Tuesday last as pastor of the Presbyterian churches of Hunterstown and Marsh Creek, the exercises in the morning being in the Hunterstown church, and in the afternoon in the Marsh creek church. At Hunterstown, the sermon was preached by Rev. I. N. Hays, of Chambersburg; charge to Pastor by Rev. J. A. Crawford, of Chambersburg; charge to congregation by Rev. I. M. Patterson, of Emmitsburg. At Marsh Creek church, Mr. Patterson delivered the Sermon, Mr. Hays the charge to the Pastor, and Mr. Crawford the charge to the congregation. Mr. Van Cleve has taken up his residence in Gettysburg and has made a favorable impression on our people.

IMPORTANT MEETING.—In today's paper will be found a notice requesting the Creditors and Bondholders of the Gettysburg Railroad Company, to meet in the Arbitrator's Room, in Gettysburg, on Saturday the 8th of May, at 1 o'clock, P. M., to take steps to secure their interests in the proceedings now pending before the Supreme Court. Every Creditor and Bondholder is interested in the matter and should make it a point to attend. The Mortgage will unquestionably be foreclosed and the Road sold, but the pecuniary interests of the Creditors and Bondholders will be largely affected by the Decree and Sale, and they should be properly represented in the proceedings. If the matter be permitted to go by default, there must necessarily be a heavy sacrifice both in the sale of the road and in the matter of the distribution of the proceeds.

MEETING OF SCHOOL DIRECTORS.—We again direct the attention of School Directors to the fact that the triennial Convention of the School Directors of the county will be held in the Courthouse on Tuesday next, (May 4,) at 1 o'clock, P. M., to elect a County Superintendent and determine the salary. The Convention will be composed of existing School Boards. Directors elected last Spring do not take office until the first of June, except in new school districts created during the year—if there be any such.

The convention is an important one, and should be fully attended. We presume Mr. SHEELY, the present Superintendent, will be a candidate for re-election. J. H. WIRT, A. M., Principal of the High School in this place for the last three years, will also be a candidate for the position, and possible other gentlemen.

LOST.—Was lost on Monday evening last, on Baltimore street, a Breastpin—Jet and Pearls in gold settings. The finder will be suitably rewarded by returning it to this office.

ENTERTAINMENT.—The entertainment of Miss McClellan's Select School on Monday evening was a decided success. Agricultural Hall was crowded with big folks and little folks, and although the exercises were protracted to a late hour, the interest of the audience was kept up to the close, the little folks especially apparently as eager at 10 o'clock to see what was to come next as when the curtain rose at 7½. Everything passed off smoothly, Readings, Speeches, Dialogues, Tableaux, Singing, &c., all judiciously varied to prevent monotony. There had evidently been a good deal of labor, patience, and painstaking in the drill requisite to make the different performances move along so smoothly and successfully. The tableaux were gotten up with much taste, some of them being quite artistic; for instance the Crowning of the May Queen, the Court of the Fairies, the Wedding, &c. The musical department was under the direction of Miss DANNER, and was not the least pleasant part of the programme. Miss MCCLELLAN and the ladies who assisted her in getting up the entertainment deserve much credit, it being the occasion of gratification to children and parents. At the close of the exercises Prof. FERRIER made some excellent remarks, complimentary to the teachers and pupils, and urging the beneficial effect of exercises of this kind as aids in the education of the young.

VELOCIPEDISTS.—The Velocipede mania in Agricultural Hall has kept up during the past week, a number of our young men practising daily—some of them having acquired considerable skill. On Thursday night of last week, a Silver Cup was contested for and awarded to Mr. Reindoller as the fastest rider, having made ten rounds of the hall, about a quarter of a mile, in 1 minute 15 seconds. On Saturday night these were two contests—a Silver Castor for fastest riding, and a Watch Chain for the slowest. The Castor was won by M. R. Minnigh, who made ten rounds in 1 minute 143 seconds, and the Chain by John Toy, who made one round in 32 seconds.

For several days the Velocipedists have been practising on the public streets, attracting a good deal of attention. We understand that a party of young men in town have purchased four improved machines and will open a permanent practising school here.

POOR HOUSE ACCOUNTS.—The discrepancy in the Poorhouse Accounts, to which our attention had been called by a correspondent, and to which we refered last week, was occasioned by an error in the amount of Steward's salary, which, we are informed, should be $300, instead of $75 as published. An examination of the original copy, as certified to by the Auditors, shows that the error exists there, the Steward's salary being carried out at $75, instead of $300. Hence the mistake is not attributable to the "Printer." We are glad to find that these statements of the county receipts and expenditures are carefully scrutinized. The law requires their publication for the information of tax-payers whose right and duty it is to examine them closely. We are under obligations to the correspondent who drew our attention to this discrepancy in the Poorhouse Accounts, and which has elicited from the proper authorities a satisfactory explanation.

RAILROAD MATTERS.—The Frederick Republican says the Frederick and Pennsylvania Line R'd will certainly be built. The Company has called for the payment of the second instalment of stock, 20 per cent., on the 22d of May, and on the 25th propose to let 28 sections of the road, each over a mile in length. The Republican has also this item:

GO AHEAD.—The people of Emmitsburg are determined to build their Railway to the Dunkard Church and connect with the Western Maryland near there, and also with the Frederick & Pennsylvania Line Railroad a little below. They will then push onward to Gettysburg, Bendersville, York Springs, Carlisle and Harrisburg, and form a junction with the great North and Lake Erie Route. This they are aware will make them thrive like a green bay tree in the month of June. Let Father McCloskey put his shoulder to the wheel and the thing can be accomplished.

IMPROVED.—The Sabbath School of St. James (Lutheran) church in this place have re-modelled their School room, and occupied it on last Sabbath. The long pews have been removed, and the seats rearranged in blocks to promote the comfort of classes. The walls have been papered in imitation of oak, and the furniture painted the same color, while tastefully arranged mottoes adorn the walls. This school is probably the largest in the county, the Infant department alone numbering nearly 150.

DEATH.—Last week a German, named Conrad Cauffman, aged about 72 years, professing to hail from Littlestown, stopped in Hanover at a house on Baltimore street, and asked for a bed, complaing of not feeling well. He was thought to be under the influence of liquor, and remained in bed several days, sleeping most of the time. He was not thought to be seriously sick, but on Friday he was found a corpse.

GOING FOR THEM.—Messrs. Wanamaker & Brown having spent the past few months in getting up the largest and best stock of spring and summer garments ever offered in Philadelphia, are now busy as bees in disposing of it at prices so that every now and then an astonished customer has to turn to his salesman to say, "You ain't fooling with me, are you?" This stock was got up with special reference to the country trade, and W. & B. are now "going for" the "custom ers from out of town." But they needn't trouble themselves, for the country people of these parts, with an eye to their own interests, are already "going for" the good clothes at low prices at Sixth and Market Streets.

BRYAN'S CIRCUS.—A rich treat is in store for the people of this vicinity. Bryan's grand menagerie, with a powerful and attractive combination of men and animals, will exhibit here on May 4th. The huge elephant, the largest now living in the United States, the roaring lions lately brought from their native forests, the savage hyena, the wonderful camel, the fretful porcupine, which the immortal Shakspeare alludes to in his writings; the chattering monkeys, the long line of cages containing the most interesting variety of quadrupeds ever brought before the public, the ponies, and the thoroughly trained horses, are but part of the grand features that will be shown under the canvas. The proprietors have authorized us to state that there is no humbug about this concern. They have assured us that they perform and exhibit everything advertised in our columns and on their bills. The chariot drawn by twelve matched cream steeds, Elephants, (among which is the large Elephant Roscius,) Camels and Dromedaries, and twenty dens containing the wild animals, drawn by two, four, six and eight spans of stalwarth grey horses will be seen in the procession as it passes through our streets at ten o'clock on the morning of the 4th. Splendid Blooded horses, Ponies and mules are attached to the Circus and will win the admiration of admirers of horse flesh.

The Menagerie is a collection of all kinds of animals, some of which are rare specimens of beasts and birds. For particulars, read the advertisement. No such opportunity has been presented to the people of Adams county for many years to witness so grand and large collection of animals. The Circus presents numerous and varied attractions. Whilst in all previous there are certain performances which are alike, we can assure our readers that they will witness some entirely new feats and Mr. JAMES MAGUIRE will furnish sufficient amusement as the Clown, for all to laugh at and grow fat. Price of admission to adults, fifty cents—children ten years of age and under, twenty-five cents. There will be two performances, one at 2 o'clock and the other at 7½ o'clock P. M.

SUDDEN DEATH.—Mr. DAVID GOCHENOUR, of Union township, died very suddenly on Monday last. It appears in the morning Mr. G. went out to the field to plow, and got returning as usual, at noon a young girl of the family went to the field to ascertain the cause of his not coming to dinner as usual. When she approached the field she saw the horses standing in the middle of the field, Mr. G. laying over the plow a corpse. It is supposed he died from heart disease. His age was about 40 years. About two years ago a brother of the deceased died under similar circumstances—falling dead behind a plow in a field.—Hanover Citizen.

FELL IN.—We have been informed that the wall of the three story mill property, this side of Abbottstown, gave way one day last week, and fell in, causing a perfect heap of stone and rubbish. The stone wall is said to have been put up very badly, which accounts for the accident. The mill was formerly the property of Mr. Hollinger, but is at present owned by Mr. George Arnold, of Gettysburg. The millers employed in the mill were at the time outside and thus saved an inevitable death. —Honover Citizen.

COAL OF ALL KINDS.—John Cress has opened a Coal yard on corner of Stratton street and Railroad, and will keep on hand Stove Coal of all sizes, Blacksmith's and Limeburner's Coal, &c., which will be sold at the lowest market price. Persons in want of Coal of any kinds, by bushel, ton, or car load, promptly supplied. It

LADIES AND CHILDREN'S SHOES.—COBEAN and CUNNINGHAM have just received a large and well selected assort ment of Ladies and Children's Shoes of all styles and prices. Preamble and Resolutions passed by the Philomathean Society of Pennsylvania College, April 28th, 1869.

WHEREAS, It has pleased all disposing Providence to remove from our number, by death, WILLIAM MOORE MCCOLLUM, formerly in connection with this association: therefore,

Resolved, That while we believe in all gentleness and mercy the good Father has taken to himself our companion, we feel that by his departure we have lost a beloved member, a genial associate, and the College a promising student.

Resolved, That we do most truly sympathize with the bereaved family and friends, and fervently pray that his early decease may lead us to consider well the momentous future, and be prepared for its solemn issue.

PRINTING INK.
WE HAVE TRIED MOST OF THE FIRST-CLASS Printing Inks manufactured in this country, and know whereof we speak, in recommending that manufactured at the Gray's Ferry Printing Ink Works, Philadelphia, as superior to any in use. It is easily worked in all sorts of weather, is clear, clean and pretty, and is many ways far ahead of it in the old at higher prices. We are second to in this recommendation by no printer, in the correctness of whose judgment in matters pertaining to the press room we have unlimited confidence.—Pittsburg Daily Gazette.
PRINTING INK.—We would direct attention to the advertisement of the Gray's Ferry Printing Ink Works, in another column. They present a number of testimonials from newspapers, speaking in the highest terms of the inks manufactured by them.—Specimens of their ink have been used in this establishment, and have given entire satisfaction.—Daily Telegraph, Harrisburg, Penn.

BEEFSTEAK—HOW TO CHOOSE AND HOW TO COOK IT.

The Hearth and Home says:—The steak usually considered the best is cut from the loin, the place formerly almost universally used for roasting, and called the sirloin. This is the celebrated porter house steak. It has the tenderloin, with its delicious soft fat for those who like tender meat, and the sirloin, which is somewhat more highly flavored. The porter-house steak is better than the tenderloin or fillet; the latter is very tender but has not much flavor, and should be larded or served with some made sauce to be a good dish. The small sirloin steak is almost as good as the porter-house. A magnificent steak, and one very seldom cut in this country, is from the rib, say the second cut ribs, which are usually counted the best roasting pieces. This steak, if properly cooked, can hardly be excelled by the best porter house.

It should be an axiom with all good marketers, that no steak can be properly cooked that is less than an inch and a quarter in thickness, and it is better an inch and a half thick.

To broil a good steak is easy, and at the same time it is difficult sometimes to make cooks appreciate the importance of minutiæ, and to force them to disregard certain old fashioned, mistaken notions. To one familiar only with the results of culinary operations, it will seem almost preposterous to say that a good steak should not be pounded; but it is a fact that implements have been devised and constructed for that purpose alone. Do not pound a good steak but flatten it a little with the side of the chopper, trim it properly, prepare it carefully, and cook it rapidly.

Some epicures regard it as very important to season the steak before cooking it, while others do not put anything upon it until it is done. This question, about which there is considerable difference of opinion, is of little practical importance.—If the meat be good, it makes no difference when the steak is salted and peppered.

To prepare the steak rub in salt and pepper well with the hand, and grease both sides slightly with sweet lard or fresh butter. Use none of the strong butter of inferior quality, commonly known as cooking butter. The steak thus prepared should then be placed between the bars of a well warmed light gridiron, so that it can be easily turned over the fire. The preparation of the fire is the most important point of all. The very best is a clear fire of bright hickory coals. The next best is a charcoal fire; but a bright fire of ordinary coal will broil pretty well. It is indispensable that the fire be hot and clear; and there should be no smoke from dripping gravy, which can easily be avoided with proper care. Put the steak over the fire, and turn often until done. When done, place it upon a hot dish, sprinkle over it a little more salt and pepper, spread over it a little sweet butter, and let it be served and eaten immediately. The difference in flavor between a well cooked steak eaten immediately and one served five minutes after it is done is enormous.

A great deal could be said about the chemistry of such a steak as we have just described. As far as the development of the aromatic principles of the meat is concerned, this dish is simply perfect. The brisk heat rapidly coagulates the tissue of the exterior, and prevents the escape of the juices, while frequent turning prevents the fibre from being charred. The meat should be cooked entirely through, and the interior should be of a uniform red color—never dark and raw. When such a steak is cut, if the raw material is of the best quality, the dish will be inundated with red gravy, which is the real juice of the meat. Such a dish is not only most savory and appetising, but it is exceedingly digestible. If physicians would learn to give meats prepared in this way to their patients during convalescence more freely than they now do, recoveries from exhausting diseases would be more rapid and complete; and if more attention were paid to the little minutiæ of cooking, health and happiness would be greatly promoted.

ORCHARD GRASS.—We have no knowledge of the value of this grass for fattening cattle; but we think our dairyman have yet to learn how valuable it is for their purposes. It is sown through this section hardly by one farmer in twenty—why, we do not know, excepting that it would be an innovation on the routine system of clover and timothy, which has been in vogue for a hundred years.

Orchard grass is one of the very earliest to start in the spring. It not only comes forward early, but it grows continuously through the season. No other grass is so little affected by drouths, or will bear without injury heavy stocking. It seems to grow and keep green till almost New Year, and is most emphatically a permanent pasture, lasting many years, improving the soil by the radiation of its numerous fibrous roots, and will crowd out daisies and most other vegetation. It wants to occupy the ground solely.

Orchard grass is, however, the most unsuitable of all grasses for the lawn or grass plot around the house, on account of its rank growth and tendency to grow in bunches. This is obviated in the field only by thick sowing, which should be not less than two bushels per acre. For hay it should be cut quite young—and a good plan is to sow clover with it. This lasts a couple of years, when the orchard grass will grow out and take possession. An orchard grass sod, on being ploughed up, is always found to be black and rich. It is a meliorator and improver of the soil.—Practical Farmer.

HOW LONG SHOULD COWS BE MILKED?—Every cow that rears a calf annually should go dry, for the purpose of rest and recuperation, not less than four weeks; and, in some instances, the time should be extended to eight or even to twelve weeks. If a cow be in full flesh when she is about to come in, during the growing season, she may be milked eleven months in a year.—On the contrary, when the same cow is expected to come in during the foddering season she ought to go dry at least two months. If a cow be in thin flesh she should have three months for recuperation and rest, especially if it is desirable to rear a good calf. The discreet husbandman should exercise much precedence and discretion in deciding how long a cow may be milked, as no rule can be given that is applicable to even a majority of cows. We do know this much, that milk-cows require rest or cessation from being milked as much as oxen that labor need rest. In many instances a cow thin in flesh is milked during most of the winter months, and the result is—as it always will be—that more will be lost in the production of butter and cheese the following summer than was gained by milking through the winter.

FRENCH ROLLS.—One ounce of butter one pound of flour, one gill of home-made yeast, one egg, milk enough to make a dough.

Rub the butter through the flour, beat the egg and stir in, then add the yeast, milk and a little salt. Knead the dough, when it is light mould it out into large biscuits and bake them on tins.

To destroy lice and other vermin on poultry, damp the skin under the feathers with water, then sprinkle a little sulphur on the skin. Let the bird be covered with insects or parasites, they will disappear in the course of twelve hours.

TRY THE

Star Bone Phosphate.

TO all agriculturists, therefore, who are in search of an active and permanent manure, and who have the claims of this article presented to their notice for the first time, the manufacturers would suggest, that the

is worthy of their experimental trial at last; past experience has given the fullest evidence, that after a trial they will add their testimony to that of hundreds of farmers in this region, who regard it as the cheapest and best manure in the market.

A Word to the Wise!

HIGHLY IMPORTANT TO FARMERS!

Renner's Chemical Fertilizer!

THE importance of a quick, active and durable Fertilizer, adapted to the soil of our county, is acknowledged by all farmers. Having satisfied myself, after long study and careful experiment, that F. C. RENNER'S surpasses all others in adaptedness to all kinds of soil, I have purchased the right for Adams county, and am prepared to fill orders for it promptly and on reasonable terms. It is no humbug, but by a number of our Farmers, and is admitted by all who have it to be the best in the market, and the cheapest. I am prepared to furnish this Fertilizer in any quantity, and will deliver

Chemical Fertilizer

In any town or village in the County, when ordered in not less quantity than a TON. I manufacture it for sale at $28 per ton without bags, $56 in bags. This Fertilizer is composed of the best fertilizing chemicals that can be had. I use no oil of vitriol; it does not contain any ammonia, therefore I do not use it. Neither do I use lime nor ashes.

THE OBJECT OF THE CHEMICAL FERTILIZER

is to introduce a fertiliser that will last for a series of crops—not only for one. It contains sufficient mineral matter to mature the grain and make it ripen early, while the ammonia forces the growth. I expect to manufacture large supply this winter for the spring crop, and therefore invite farmers and the public generally to give it a trial on all kinds of Grains and Grasses.

CAUTION.—I hereby give notice that Farm Rights heretofore sold unless signed by me, are infringements on my Right, and will be prosecuted and dealt with according to law, from which there is no appeal.

All orders will be promptly attended to by me

A CERTAIN CURE

AND

PREVENTIVE OF DISEASES.

The ZINGARI BITTERS are compounded from a prescription of the celebrated Egyptian physician Ra. CHOPHOUS, who, after years of trial and experiment, discovered the Zingarian Herb—the most remarkable vegetable production, the earth, perhaps, has ever yielded—certainly the most effective in the cure of disease. It, in combination with other valuable properties of which the ZINGARI BITTERS is composed, will cure

Dyspepsia, Fever and Ague, Bilious Fever, Cholic, Colds, Bronchitis, Consumption in its first stage, Flatulency, Nervous Debility, Female Complaints, Rheumatism, Dysentery, Acute and Chronic Diarrhœa, Cholera Morbus, Cholera, Typhoid and Typhus Fever, Yellow Fever, Scrofula, Diseases of the Kidneys, Habitual Costiveness, &c., &c.

In the PREVENTION and CURE of the above diseases, it has never been known to fail, as thousands of our most prominent citizens throughout all parts of the country, will testify. Let the afflicted send for circular containing testimonials and certificates of those who have been cured after their cases have been pronounced hopeless by our best physicians.

AYER'S

CHERRY PECTORAL,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Probably never before in the whole history of medicine, has anything won so widely and so deeply upon the confidence of mankind, as this excellent remedy for pulmonary complaints. Through a long series of years, and among most of the races of men, it has risen higher and higher in their estimation, as it has become better known. Its uniform character and power to cure the various affections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a reliable protector against them. While adapted to milder forms of disease and to young children, it is at the same time the most effectual remedy that can be given for incipient consumption, and the dangerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a provision against sudden attacks of Croup, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed as all are sometimes subject to colds and coughs, all should be provided with this antidote for them.

Although settled Consumption is thought incurable, still great numbers of cases where the disease seemed settled, have been completely cured, and the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Pectoral. So complete is its mastery over the disorders of the Lungs and Throat, that the most obstinate of them, under the Cherry Pectoral they subside and disappear.

Singers and Public Speakers find great protection from it.

Asthma is always relieved and often wholly cured by it.

Bronchitis is generally cured by taking the Cherry Pectoral in small and frequent doses.

So generally are its virtues known that we need not publish the certificates of them here, or do more than assure the public that its qualities are fully maintained

Ayer's Ague Cure,

For Fever and Ague, Intermittent Fever, Chill Fever Remittent Fever, Bumb Ague, Periodical or Bilious Fever, &c., and indeed all the affections which arise from malarious, marsh, or miasmatic poisons.

As its name implies, it does Cure, and does not fail. Containing neither Arsenic Quinine, Stimouth, Zinc, nor any other mineral or poisonous substance whatever, it is no less innocuous than powerful. The number and importance of its cures in the ague districts, are literally beyond account, and we believe without a parallel in the history of Ague medicine. Both agents in the sale of our independents we receive of the richest curse effected in the above cases, and where other remedies had wholly failed.

Unacclimated persons, visiting or resident in, or traveling through miasmatic localities, will be protected by taking the AGUE CURE daily.

For Liver Complaints, arising from torpidity of the Liver, it is an excellent remedy, stimulating the Liver into healthy activity.

For Bilious Disorders and Liver Complaints, it is an excellent remedy, subduing many truly remarkable cures, where other medicines had failed.

THE GREAT

Invigorator and Restorer

OF THE

Vitality of the Stomach.

Prepared from Pure Vegetable Materials.

AND

Pure Tonics and the most Pleasant Aromatics.

This invaluable Remedy for Dyspepsia and General Debility will be found the best in the market, and the fair trial of its merits, with entire confidence that it will command their approval. It has been submitted with the most flattering success in its practical use by Physicians—among others to Dr. M. D. G. PFEIFFER, one of our oldest and most eminent Physicians, residing at New Oxford, who, after examination, pronounced it a Remedy which would not fail to show its beneficial effects, when properly administered, in cases of Dyspepsia, springing from old age and debilitating effects of certain inward diseases—weakening, and at last destroying the nervous power of the stomach itself—and therefore enabling it to be emphatically called "The Great Invigorator."

Dr. W. J. MCCLURE, another prominent Physician of New Oxford, thus gives his opinion:

MR. JOHN BUSHEY,

Dear Sir—In your request I have examined "The Great Invigorator," prepared by you, and the formula from which it is prepared. It is composed of some of the most powerful vegetable tonics and most pleasant aromatics known to our profession, and I have no hesitancy in recommending it in Chronic cases of Dyspepsia, and in all cases of Debilitation resulting from debility of the Stomach. Believing this, if properly used, it will be of incalculable benefit to the suffering of our race, I subscribe myself,

Yours, very respectfully,

MADE FROM

ONE PINT OF MILK.

$25 profit made by investing $1 for a bottle of the EXTRACT OF BUTTER PLANT, which, with six gallons of milk, will produce 50 lbs of prime fresh Butter. This fragrant, excellent Butter is now daily consumed from the table of the first Europeans and private families in New York City and elsewhere.

State, County and City Rights for sale, offering to capitalists rare opportunities for establishing a staple business, paying enormous profits. Agents wanted every where.

Bottle of the Extract, sufficient to make 50 lbs of Butter, with full directions for use, will be sent to any address on receipt of $1.

The public are cautioned against all worthless imitations, sold under the name of "Butter Powders, &c., &c.," as the EXTRACT OF BUTTER PLANT is prepared only by the

ECONOMY BUTTER COMPANY,

Office, 115 Liberty Street.

Factory, 236 Greenwich Street,

NEW YORK CITY.

N. B.—By the use of the Butter Plant a pure and excellent Table Butter is made at a cost of sixteen cents per pound.

PUMPS! PUMPS!

FOR pure water use, neither bad tasting wood, rusty iron, nor poison lead, but made of gilt cucumber wood, entirely tasteless, durable and reliable. Has a patent suction, but the good old-fashioned wooden Plug, made by machinery, and therefore perfect and accurate in all its parts, raising an equal amount of water, at one-half the labor, and the money. Really arranged so as to be non-freezing, and in construction so simple that any one can put it up and keep it in repair. After thoroughly trial it is acknowledged the BEST AND CHEAPEST. Twelve feet of piping with each pump, free of charge. Dealers supplied at lowest manufacturers rates. For circulars, price lists, &c.

THE CELEBRATED
